Enslaved Laborers at Kanapaha Plantation - enslaved by Haile and Chesnut families on neighboring plantations. Historic house museum that has embraced the documentation of the enslaved population, actively sharing their stories and seeking more information through research and oral histories.	Gainesville, Alachua County, FL	Haile Homestead at Kanapaha Plantation
Kingsley Plantation - oldest surviving antebellum Spanish colonial plantation in	Fort George Island, FL - National Park, 23 miles northeast of Jacksonville, FL	Fort George Island enslaved

the US. first source has brief summaries of a few enslaved individuals. Special history study includes the period before and after the Kingsleys' bought the plantation. Interesting that Kingsley's wife was born into a noble family in Senegal, captured and sold into slavery, owned, then wedded and freed by Kingsley. Together, they owned slaves in FL. * Will need to read special history to get additional names of the enslaved.		special history study on Fort George Island enslaved population - chapter 4 is about the enslaved who were manumitted—there is extensive information about their lives (in comparison to others). list compiled from National Park Service document
The Orman House - State park - just discovered documents in the house that detail names, ages, and skill sets of the enslaved. They are working on rebuilding slave quarters (some still exist on the property) and including an accurate interpretation of their lives. Might be able to leverage the connection at The Dudley Farm. Currently closed until December, 2022.	Apalachicola, FL	https://www.floridastateparks.org/learn/orman-house-servant-quarters
Bulow Plantation Ruins Historic State Park According to the video, there were 197 enslaved workers at the site in the 1830 census. They were evacuated and relocated to St. Augustine during the Seminole War in 1836. The Seminoles burned the house and slave quarters. It was never rebuilt.	Flagler Beach, FL	https://www.floridastateparks.org/parks-and-trails/bulow-plantation-ruins-historic-state-park video about site

Discovered David Dudley, wife Eliza Dudley, and child, Samuel b. 1863 in Newberry, FL 1870 census. Possibly enslaved at Dudley Farm? Need to compare to slave schedules.

David Dudley and Samuel Dudley correspond to two males on slave schedule. Eliza Dudley may be the female born in 1842, but in 1870 census, her birth year is listed at 1845.
